Holy Gospel

Matthew 8: 28 - 9:1

When he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes,^[e] two demoniacs coming out of the tombs met him. They were so fierce that no one could pass that way. 29 Suddenly they shouted, "What have you to do with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" 30 Now a large herd of swine was feeding at some distance from them. 31 The demons begged him, "If you cast us out, send us into the herd of swine." 32 And he said to them, "Go!" So they came out and entered the swine; and suddenly, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the water. 33 The swineherds ran off, and on going into the town, they told the whole story about what had happened to the demoniacs. 34 Then the whole town came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighborhood. And after getting into a boat he crossed the sea and came to his own town.

Holy Epistle

Romans 10: 1 – 10

Brothers and sisters,^[a] my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved. 2 I can testify that they have a zeal for God, but it is not enlightened. 3 For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they have not submitted to God's righteousness. 4 For Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes. Salvation is for all 5 Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." 6 But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) 7 "or 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). 8 But what does it say?

"The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); 9 because ^[b] if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

Quotes by Saints

"The works of penance abound in such delights and joys that once they have been tasted, nothing will ever again root them out of the soul.... Only the first steps are difficult for those who eagerly choose this path."

"There is no better way to experience the good God than to find him in the perfect sacrifice of the Mass."

"My children, it is in loving the cross that we find true peace, not running from it."

"The soul should move toward prayer the way a fish should move toward water; they are both a purely natural state."

"If you invoke the Blessed Virgin when you are tempted, she will come at once to your help, and Satan will leave you."

– St. John Vianney

"Prayer is the foundation of the spiritual edifice. Prayer is all powerful."

"Don't let your life be sterile. Be useful. Blaze a trail. Shine forth with the light of your faith... and light up all the ways of the earth with the fire of Christ that you carry in your heart."

"God calls us through what happens during our day: through the suffering and happiness of the people we live with, through the human interests of our colleagues and the things that make up our family life."

– St. Josemaria Escriva
